

New College Oxford

Chapel Services

Hilary Term
2020

WELCOME to New College chapel. Music and worship have been at the heart of the college since 1379, when William of Wykeham founded the college for ‘the increase of divine worship’ as well as ‘the growth of the Liberal Arts, Sciences and branches of learning’. Today chapel services gather students, staff and fellows to mark key moments in the academic year, and serve as a respite from the busy life of term. A few services are particularly for members of the college, but most are open to all, and all are welcome. This booklet includes the music for each service, and can be used alongside the Evensong card and Sung Eucharist booklet; but chapel services ask very little of those who come through the door, as the combined voices of the choir raise our pleas to God, and we are merely invited to be still in this place where prayer has been valid for many centuries. Whether you are a person of strong faith or none, a member of college or a first-time visitor, may you find peace and light in your time here.

The Revd Dr Erica Longfellow, Dean of Divinity
The Revd Susan Bridge, Associate Chaplain

THE Organist, Robert Quinney, is on sabbatical leave this term, and the chapel is delighted to welcome Dr James Lancelot, Canon Organist Emeritus and formerly Master of the Choristers and Organist at Durham Cathedral. Dr Lancelot directs the choir this term and is responsible for the term’s music, including Epiphany Carols and Music & Readings for Lent. His time at Durham was marked by expansion of the choirs and a commitment to new commissions, including Sir James Macmillan’s Missa Dunelmi. He is a notable recitalist and will be performing Messiaen’s La Nativité du Seigneur on Thursday 24 January (details below).

All enquiries from families of potential choristers should be directed to the Choir Office (details below). Auditions take place in January for boys in year 2 for the choir’s probationer programme, which starts in year 3. The Chorister Open Day in the summer provides an introduction to chorister life and to New College School, where choristers receive generous bursaries.

The Choir welcomes contact with senior school musicians interested in applying for a choral award in New College. Interested applicants can find information on the University of Oxford website, or in the choral and organ scholar brochure on the choir website. New College’s own ‘Experience Evensong’ programme offers young singers an opportunity to sing Evensong during University Term and to talk to choir staff and current choral scholars.

All information about choristerships and choral scholarships, as well as the Music List, Term Card, and details of concerts and recordings, can be found on the choir’s website, www.newcollegechoir.com. For further details and to contact the Organist, please email the Choir Administrator: choir@new.ox.ac.uk.

James Lancelot, Acting Organist
Charles Maxtone-Smith, Acting Assistant Organist

Hamish Fraser, Organ Scholar

THE CHAPLAINS are available to listen to any member of college. They can be reached on chaplain@new.ox.ac.uk, susan.bridge@new.ox.ac.uk, and on 01865 279541.

In addition to the services listed in this booklet, the chapel hosts events for students and the wider college.

Student Morning Prayer is on Thursdays in even weeks at 8.15 am, followed by free breakfast in hall, and finishing in time for 9.00am lectures.

Soul Food is a discussion group that meets over a free lunch with home-baked treats on Thursdays from 1.00-2.00pm in 3 OB 6.

Sunday Evensong is followed by drinks in the Undercroft for students, staff and fellows of the college.

One of the Catholic chaplains will be coming to say mass for staff, students, and fellows of New College on Wednesday 12 February at 6.00pm.

On Shrove Tuesday, 25 February, the Dean of Divinity will be serving pancakes for all students from 4.00-5.30pm at 1 Savile Road.

Special Services this term include:

The Epiphany Procession at 5.45pm on Sunday 19 January will focus on the three miracles of new life that feature in the seasonal readings and in Luca Marenzio's motet Tribus miraculis: the revelation of Jesus as the Messiah to the wise men from the east, the descent of the Holy Spirit on Jesus at his baptism, and Jesus's first public miracle, turning water into wine at a wedding in the city of Cana.

The service for the feast of Candlemas on Sunday 2 February at 5.45pm is one of the highlights of the college year, closing with a candlelit procession when the choir will sing Johannes Eccard's When to the Temple Mary Went. A new setting of the Evensong canticles by Deborah Pritchard will be premiered at this service, commissioned by the college as part of the celebrations of the 40th anniversary of the admission of women students. Dr Bethany Sollereeder, Research Fellow at the Laudato Si' Research Institute of ecology and social justice, will be preaching.

There will be a solemn eucharist with ashing on Ash Wednesday, 26 February, at 6.15pm. The music will include Allegri's Miserere; and the Associate Chaplain, the Revd Susan Bridge, will preach.

At the end of term there will be a service of Readings & Music for Lent with motets by Tallis, Byrd, Allegri, Brahms and Mendelssohn. Professor Peter McCullough, General Editor of the Oxford Sermons of John Donne will read from Donne's prose.
