

CHOIR of NEW COLLEGE OXFORD
Lay Clerk Vacancies (from 1 October 2024)
1 tenor, 1 bass

The New College Choir wishes to appoint two new lay clerks, one tenor and one bass, from 1 October 2024. The posts are fixed-term for two years, with the possibility of extension.

Details of the role: As well as singing daily services during university term, lay clerks enjoy excellent opportunities to develop solo singing in concerts and recordings, and on tour, in the UK and abroad. The posts will suit singers building up a professional portfolio, and the choir's schedule enables lay clerks to take up opportunities to sing professionally in Oxford and beyond.

Salary: £10,476 p.a., concert and recording fees plus singing lessons up to the value of £720.

Application Procedure: Applicants should send a covering letter, CV, and the names of two referees to the Choir Administrator or upload to the online application via the New College website: www.new.ox.ac.uk - Job Vacancies.

Closing Date: The closing date for applications is Friday 9 March 2024.

Auditions: To be held in person on Tuesday 19 March at New College. Candidates will be asked to sing a Bach or Handel aria and undertake sight reading tests.

Terms & Conditions: Please contact the Choir Administrator for full details.
